DETAILED ACTION

1. The petition to make special, filed 05/21/2004 and approved 09/26/2005, is noted.
2. No preliminary amendment has been located in this application file record. The examiner presumes that no preliminary amendment has been filed.
3. Claims 1-7 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

4. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1 & 2, drawn to a masking compound, classified in class 106, subclass 2.
  - II. Claim 3, drawn to a process for cleaning a surface, classified in class 427, subclass 154.
  - III. Claim 4, drawn to a process for masking a surface, classified in class 427, subclass 259 or 282.
  - IV. Claims 5 & 6, drawn to a method of isolating/dividing a space, classified in class 156, subclass various.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

5. Invention I and inventions II-IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case, with respect to inventions II and III, the masking compound may be used in another process, such as one in which the compound is not removed from the surface. With respect to invention IV, the process as claimed can be practiced with any masking compound, including ones with compositions different from that recited in claim 1.

6. Invention II and inventions III and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions are not disclosed as capable of use together. Further, invention III has a different design, mode of operation, and effect; namely, invention II cleans a surface while invention III masks a surface and yields a non-uniform coating. Invention IV functions entirely differently than invention II in that invention IV adheres a sheet to a substrate and is not removed, while invention II cleans a surface and the masking compound is removed.

7. Inventions III and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, invention IV functions entirely differently than invention III in that invention IV adheres a sheet to a substrate and is not removed, while invention III masks a surface and the masking compound is removed.

8. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

9. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1762

10. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

11. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

12. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
